Call for Nominations for the 2017 ARTHUR ST. CLAIR HISTORIC PRESERVATION AWARD

Presented annually to individuals, organizations, businesses or educational institutions that have made a significant and sustainable contribution to the preservation of our historic places, documents, records or stories, and by doing so, are keeping alive Westmoreland County's rich history & heritage for future generations.

This award is named in honor of Arthur St. Clair, an important figure in the founding of Westmoreland County. When the cause of the American Revolution beckoned, Arthur St. Clair answered that call and rose to the rank of major general in the Continental Army. After the war he served as the president of Congress under the Articles of Confederation and as the first governor of the Northwest Territory.

The 2017 Award will be presented at the annual Arthur St. Clair Historic Preservation Awards Dinner

Wednesday, October 18, 2017 at Rizzo's Malabar Inn Banquet Hall

A committee will select the recipients of this award following a county-wide nomination process.

Selection Criteria:

The nominee shall have developed, or made a significant contribution to, an historic preservation project or activity. The benefits of that project must show evidence of sustainability and be available to the public on a regular basis. Said project must make a substantial contribution to a better understanding of the history and heritage of Westmoreland County, its people or communities. The kind of work to be recognized includes:

- Publications, journalism, oral histories
- Historical/archaeological site development
- Historic building preservation
- Educational programming
- Preservation of historic neighborhoods or downtowns
- Agricultural or rural lands preservation
- Preservation of archival materials
- Financial support of history-related projects
